Ohio Corn Yield Seen Averaging 59 Bushels

Ag Agency Prediction Is 15 Bushels To Acre Over National Average

WASHINGTON (AP)—An Agriculture Department crop forecast for 1956 shows that the average Ohio farmer will produce 15 more bushels of corn to the acre this year than the national average.

The report shows that Ohio corn is expected to average 59 bushels to the acre while the national average is 44. Total Ohio corn production for this year is expected to total 216,520,000 bushels.

Other Ohio harvest predictions: Soybeans for beans: 24 bushels per acre, production 31,224,000 bushels.

Sugar beets: 13 tons per acre, production 230,000 tons. Burley tobacco: production 14,840,000 pounds, up from 14,322,000 pounds last year.

The department estimated this year's nationwide corn crop at 3,412,183,000 bushels, the second largest of record.

This estimate is 43,081,000 bushels more than last month's forecast of 3,369,102,000 bushels. It compares with 3,241,536,000 average.

No new estimates were given for wheat and the other grains.

THE NOVEMBER estimates for other crops compared with that for October, last year and the 10-year average, respectively, included:

Soybeans for beans 457,394,000 bushels; 470,064,000; 371,106,000 and 253,653,000. Tobacco 2,124,767,000 pounds; 2,067,029,000; 2,195,788,000 and 2,128,394,000.

The average acre yield of important crops compared with last year and the 10-year average, respectively, included:

Corn 44 bushels an acre this year; 40.6 last year and 37.1 for the 10-year average; Soybeans for beans 21.8 bushels; 19.9 and 20.

The indicated yield per acre and the production, respectively, of important crops by other major-producing states, included:

Corn—Indiana 60 and 286,980; Illinois 67 and 595,563,000; Kentucky 45 and 83,520,000. Soybeans for beans—Indiana 24½ and 53,214,000; Illinois 28½ and 135,632,000.

Tobacco—Indiana 1,700 and 12,410,000; Kentucky 1,529 and 368,995,000.

New Surge Of Business Activity Seen

SEA ISLAND, Ga. (AP)—Government and industry economists expect that another strong surge of consumer credit will help push business activity to new records in 1957.

This forecast, described as one "disciplined optimism," was presented to the Commerce Department's 165-member Business Advisory Council at its fall meeting with Secretary of Commerce Weeks and other administration officials.

Weeks said Friday night the council's studies indicate the first six months of 1957 "will go ahead of this year" in production and sales.

Good news for the auto industry, one of the laggards in 1956, and for home appliance producers was contained in the report of the council's economic policy committee headed by T. V. Houser, board chairman of Sears, Roebuck and Co.

Houser said consumers have been paying off old installment debts at almost as rapid a rate as they have been making new installment purchases.

This situation, which has occurred only three times since the end of World War II, means that householders are getting their bills down to a point where they will feel like making new time payment purchases.

That in turn, said Houser, means that "autos and other consumer goods industries may have a better year in 1957."

Polite Scramble Underway For 2 Top Posts In Senate

WASHINGTON (AP)—A polite but determined scramble was underway today among both Democratic and Republican senators for party leadership posts at the January session.

At stake are the jobs of assistant Democratic leader held by Sen. Clements (D-Ky.), who lost his bid for re-election, and chairman of the Republican conference, vacant because Sen. Millikin (R-Colo.) did not seek another term.

Both Democratic leader Lyndon B. Johnson of Texas and Republican leader Knowland of California were wary about predicting who will step into the vacancies.

Unlike committee chairmanships, the Senate party leadership posts are not decided on the basis of length of service.

Senate Democrats operate under a leader and his assistant. The Republicans have a policy committee chairman, now Sen. Bridges (R-NH), and a conference chairman, the post now vacant.

Johnson told a news conference Friday that the defeat of Clements in Kentucky was "a great blow" and he had "not given any thought" to filling the post of Democratic whip.

HALF A DOZEN other Democratic senators aided Johnson and Clements last session by serving as acting leader.

They include Senators Smathers of Florida, who headed the Senate Democratic campaign committee this year; Kennedy of Massachusetts, who came close to winning the vice presidential nomination; Humphrey of Minnesota; Long of Louisiana, Gore of Tennessee, and Morse of Oregon.

The Republican conference chairman presides at closed-door meetings of all Republican senators. He normally irones out squabbles over committee assignments and tries to harmonize differences over legislation.

He is one of the top congressional leaders invited to White House conferences.

There was speculation that Sen. Saltonstall (R-Mass.), who has supported most Eisenhower proposals, might switch from his job as assistant Republican leader to conference chairman.

Other Republican senators expected to get consideration for the vacancy include Bricker of Ohio, H. Alexander Smith of New Jersey, Hickenlooper of Iowa and Dirksen of Illinois.

U. N. Police Force Units Heading For Duty In Suez

Ouster Of Soviet In Hungary Eyed

U. N. Also Studying Problem Of Police Force In Egypt

UNITED NATIONS, N. Y. (AP)—The U. N. General Assembly today pushed its efforts to get Soviet troops out of Hungary and a U. N. police force at work in Egypt.

The 76-nation assembly called a meeting to transfer both questions from emergency special session to its 11th annual regular session starting Monday.

Officials said the Assembly would give top priority to the two subjects in three-month regular session, bypassing committee work to deal with them directly.

For the second time in six days, the Assembly Friday night called on the Soviet Union to get its forces out of Hungary.

The call was contained in a resolution proposed by Cuba, Ireland, Italy, Pakistan and Peru. It passed 48-11 with only the Soviet bloc, India and Yugoslavia opposed.

In the resolution, the Assembly said specifically for the first time that "free elections should be held in Hungary under United Nations auspices," once order had been restored.

BITTERLY critical of Soviet military intervention, it declared "the repression undertaken by the Soviet forces in Hungary" violated the U. N. charter and the 1947 Hungarian peace treaty. It also said foreign intervention there was an "intolerable attempt" to deny the people their rights.

The Assembly passed two other resolutions for relief to the Hungarian people. One, sponsored by Austria, went through 67-0 with 8 abstentions. The other, sponsored by the United States, was adopted 53-9 with 13 abstentions.

Before passing the latter, the Assembly voted down 45-18, with 12 abstentions, an effort of Ceylon, India and Indonesia to amend it so as to remove all language critical of Soviet Union.

The new withdrawal demand reinforced U. S. resolution the Assembly adopted 50-8 last Sunday. The Assembly repeated its request that U. N. Secretary General Dag Hammarskjold investigate the situation in Hungary.

It asked him to report at the earliest possible moment and called for him to "suggest methods to bring an end to the existing situation in Hungary."

The newly adopted Austrian relief resolution appeals to all countries to help Hammarskjold in "large scale immediate aid" to Hungary, including medical supplies, food and clothing.

The U. S. resolution has similar relief provisions and also asks Hammarskjold to work for emergency assistance for Hungarian refugees, through the U. N. Refugee Office and otherwise.

U. S. Suffering Malnutrition?

PASADENA, Calif. (AP)—The United States, with an unlimited food supply, nonetheless has a serious malnutrition problem, says Dr. Charles Glen King, director of the Nutrition Foundation.

This problem arises not from too little to eat but from too much, adds the New York authority.

"The amazing fact is that in the United States the most serious form of malnutrition is overeating, with resultant excess in body weight," he said in addressing the Institute of Food Technologists and Nutrition Foundation. "We appear to be badly spoiled; we 'burn up' the highways instead of the calories."

After a similar attempt failed Friday, authorities said the condition of the structure remained dangerous and displaced residents would not be able to return home for at least two more days.

A twin-engine private plane struck the tower Thursday and then crashed into a crowded five-story apartment house eight blocks away. Four persons died and 15 were injured.

Pro-Soviet Hungarian Chiefs Woo Rebels With Promises

VIENNA (AP)—Hungary's pro-Russian government sought today to woo rebel holdouts by dangling promises to negotiate for Soviet withdrawal as soon as order returns to the war-torn country.

The declaration, broadcast by the government-controlled Budapest radio, pledged that in bargaining with the Soviet Union, Russian-Hungarian relations should be settled "on a basis of equality and independence."

It promised the government of Premier Janos Kadar would retain the "achievements reached by the movement which started Oct. 23" the day Hungary's anti-Communist revolution flared.

The concessions held out by the government indicated Russian tanks and guns had failed to completely stamp out rebel action.

The appeal was broadcast in the wake of reports that rebels had blown up the great uranium mines near Pees in southern Hungary. Hungarian refugees told Vienna newspaper the mines were so thoroughly dynamited the Russians will not be able to reopen them for a long time.

THE MINES were a prime objective when the Russians moved in with their military might Sunday to crush the revolt. The rebels had demanded that Hungary stop handing over uranium to the Soviet Union.

The Budapest broadcast also made it apparent Hungary was still in the grip of a paralyzing general strike.

The statement, purportedly sanctioned by both the government and Hungary's Communist party, appealed to workers to go back to their jobs. It said if this was not done, Hungary was threatened by inflation and a collapse of her economy.

The broadcast said "achievements" the government would retain included abolition of injustices under which workers suffered, settlement of wages and quotas, recognition of workers' councils in factories, establishment of a new police force and removal of the Soviet star from Hungary's state emblem.

Egypt Gives Qualified OK To Patrol; 3 Foes Promise To Pull Out

LONDON (AP)—Advance units of United Nations police force, made up of soldiers from 17 countries, prepared to move to the Suez Canal zone today to take on the task of keeping peace in the Middle East.

Establishment of the world peace patrol received at least qualified approval Friday night in Cairo. The other nations involved in recent fighting (Britain, France and Israel) already had promised to turn over occupation duties in Egypt to the U. N. force.

But there was growing evidence that Israel intends to remain in the Gaza Strip, a 25-mile Mediterranean coastal area from which Israeli forces ousted Egyptian defenders last week. The U. N. General Assembly resolution that set up the peace patrol called for withdrawal of all other foreign forces from Egypt. The general feeling in Israel was that Israeli forces would leave Egypt's Sinai for eight years, actually is part of Palestine and Israel would seek to retain it.

A GIGANTIC airlift was underway to carry units of the new police force to the Middle East.

The vanguard of the force, between 300 and 400 troops from Norway and Denmark, were to be flown in U. S. Air Force planes to a staging area near Naples, Italy. After a brief stop, they are to continue on in Swiss planes.

Two other U. S. planes went to Bogota, Colombia, to get another contingent.

The five permanent members of the U. N. Security Council (the United States, Russia, Britain, France and Nationalist China) were forbidden to assign troops to the U. N. force although U. S. logistical support was accepted.

The beachhead at the north end of the Suez Canal that British and French invasion forces seized earlier this week was quiet.

Britain began pulling assault troops out of the Canal zone.

At least 13 persons have been killed since Friday evening, six in highway accidents and seven in fires.

DROODLES

By ROGER PRICE

"A NICK OF TIME" Most people waste their extra little nicks of time just carousing or goofing off. They should be constructive. For instance, in a nick of time you can listen to one groove in an Elvis Presley record, you can make a third of a cup of instant coffee, you can miss a train or you can brush one tooth. In a nick of time a man can shave six whiskers and a woman can easily tell a friend all the latest details about two weddings and three divorces. A little boy would be able to snap his bubble gum ten times and a six-year-old girl could pick up 15 jacks, and a dog could nip the mailman. And if you are the intellectual type you can think up an idea for a Droodle.

forces out of Port Said and replacing them with regular infantry. The British have promised that these troops would leave when the U. N. force can take over.

A cease-fire has been in effect in the Suez battle zone three days.

In Tel Aviv, a high Israeli government official said today Israeli forces destroyed 50 per cent of Egypt's military power in their drive into Egypt last week. He said 50 million dollars worth of Egyptian equipment was captured. Much of the equipment captured or destroyed was of Soviet manufacture.

The source said 3,000 Egyptians were killed in the four-day fighting and 7,000 Egyptian prisoners now are in Israeli hands. Israel has put its own losses at 150 killed, 600 wounded and 20 missing.

After Fast Start, Tuesday's Voting Began To Dwindle

The chill drizzle that began around dusk during last Tuesday's balloting apparently put a good bit of damper on the turnout of voters in Pickaway County.

After reports from the polls earlier in the day had indicated the total vote would surpass the presidential election turnout in 1952, the county's total vote—like that throughout Ohio—fell short years ago.

The total Pickaway County vote during the presidential election of 1952 was 12,280.

Last Tuesday, the Pickaway County Board of Elections has announced, the total vote was 11,690.

Newspapers Urged Aid Inflation Fight

CHICAGO (AP)—The chairman of United States Steel Corp. has urged America's newspapers to lead the fight against inflation in their editorial columns.

Roger M. Blough, in an address before the fall meeting of the National Editorial Assn., declared that "we shall get out of our inflation difficulty only as each one of us understands the nature of the problem and the means of attacking it."

He asserted that the best means of attaining that understanding is through the American press.

Grand Jury Clears Cops In Slaying

CINCINNATI (AP)—Two policemen who shot Peter White, 15, to death Oct. 18, have been exonerated by the Hamilton County grand jury.

"No crime was committed," Wesley Nolting, jury foreman, reported to Judge Carson Hoy.

White was shot at his home, where policemen Charles Hensley and Virgil Backscheider had gone in connection with his failure to attend school. The officers said the boy, described as being large for his age, threatened them with a crowbar.

The sea cow, manatee and dugong belong to the Sirenia, an order of aquatic, herbivorous mammals of doubtful affinity. Their origin is unknown.

CHS Marching Band Finishes Successful Grid Show Season

Circleville High School's marching band, making the trip to Washington, D. C. for the Tiger-Blue Lion football game last night, climaxed a successful season of football halftime entertainment.

Commemorating Veterans Day, the popular CHS band, braving Friday night's chilly weather, presented a show entitled "Service Salute", honoring all of our country's war veterans.

The Truman Eberly tutored musicians, led onto the field by drum major Susan Stocklen, paid special tribute to the various branches of our armed forces.

Playing the "Caisson Song", the bandmen honored the field artillery by forming a huge cannon. The band's high-stepping majorettes got into the act by forming a projectile which burst from the big gun.

New Jersey Governor's Nuptials Set

TRENTON, N. J. (AP)—A romance that loomed amid the hectic politics of a presidential election year wedding of Gov. Robert B. Meyner and Miss Helen Stevenson.

The engagement of the couple was announced Wednesday. At a news conference Thursday they told how they met at a mock Democratic convention at Oberlin (Ohio) College in May and how the governor proposed at the real Democratic convention in Chicago in August.

Meyner said plans are to hold the wedding at Oberlin after the 1957 New Jersey legislature convenes early in January.

Miss Stevenson, a distant relative of Adlai Stevenson, the Democrats' unsuccessful presidential candidate, is the daughter of Oberlin's president.

Of her romance with the governor she said:

"I liked him very much at first. He told me he hoped he would see me in New York some time. He took my telephone number, but took three weeks to call me."

She was working in the New York volunteers for Stevenson campaign. She said she saw the governor for occasional dinner dates and weekends.

"I think I got quite serious in July," Meyner said.

Then came the question during the Democratic convention. Neither Meyner nor Miss Stevenson related exactly when and where the proposal was made.

"We were alone together," was all she would say. She admitted this was quite a feat during the hectic convention week.

Cigarette Holder Deflects Bullet
PAINESVILLE (AP)—Credit an aluminum cigarette holder as a probable lifesaver for Albert Askew, 30, of Painesville.

He and John Medkif, 45, were watching a detective story program on television, and got into an argument. Police said Medkif shot Askew in the left side of the chest with a .38 caliber revolver. The cigarette holder deflected the bullet. It plowed under the man's skin and crossed his chest, traveling more than a foot. But it touched no vital organs. The holder was over Askew's heart.

Askew remained in Lake County Memorial Hospital today for observation. Medkif was held in jail.

WE REMEMBER ...

The 8th Air Force
February 20-25, 1944—
"Big Week"

In five massive daylight raids during "Big Week", the 8th Air Force sent 3300 heavy bombers from its bases in England over aircraft plants in central Germany. By coordinating with the RAF and the 9th and 15th U.S. Air Forces, the raids were extended to an around-the-clock assault. The targets received more than 10,000 tons of bombs. Fighter planes from the 8th flew 2500 sorties in support of the attacks.

"Big Week" bombings were credited with forcing the almost complete dispersal of the German aircraft industry and denied the enemy hundreds of vitally needed planes. The raids, which established Allied air superiority over Germany, destroyed 600 Nazi aircraft in the air and on the ground.

BRING A FRIEND TO CHURCH WITH YOU

St. Philip's Ready To Make Annual Member Canvass

St. Philip's Church laymen will begin their annual project of the every member canvass this Sunday morning following services at the Church.

Under the direction of Lawrence Goeller Jr., Key-layman for the parish, the laymen's every member canvass committee will contact each member of the parish family during the next two weeks.

Each member will be presented with a pledge card whereby they may indicate the extent of their financial support of the parochial program for 1957.

Members of the committee will also answer questions concerning the program of the church which parishioners may care to ask. Following a public presentation of the proposed budget at a dinner meeting held Thursday evening, copies of the budget were given to each parishioner.

In this year's canvass, all members of the parish are asked to pledge gifts for both the church's work in the local parish and for the work of the Church throughout the world.

Mrs. Leora Sayre and Mrs. J. E. Groom are assisting the committee.

Methodist Sermon Entitled 'When Men Talk Peace'

In the duplicate worship services at First Methodist Church Sunday, the Rev. Charles D. Reed will use for his sermon subject "When Men Talk Peace."

The Scripture lesson will be read from The First Letter to the Thelonians, the fifth chapter, the first ten verses.

Hymns for the services will include, "O Young and Fearless Prophet" and "Dear Lord and Father of Mankind". The Junior Choir, under the direction of Mrs. Harold Defenbaugh, will sing "Praise the Name of the Lord" in the 10:45 service. Mrs. Ervin Leist, the church organist, will be at the organ in both services.

The Sunday School, under the direction of superintendent Richard Plum, will meet at 9:30 a. m.

A special service is to be held Sunday at 7:30 p. m.

Carol Ann Johnson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Johnson, and Austin Laughlin, son of Mr. and Mrs. Azel Laughlin, will present their "Prince of Peace Declarations".

This service is being sponsored by The Methodist Youth Fellowship, and the public is invited to attend. Each of the contestants holds offices in the local Methodist Youth Fellowship, and also in the Chillicothe District Methodist Youth Council.

The Rev. Charles D. Reed will be in charge of the service.

Our Debt To God Selected Theme At Presbyterian

During the 10:30 hour of worship at the Presbyterian Church Sunday, the claims of Christian stewardship will occupy the center of attention.

The pastor, the Rev. Donald Mitchell will deliver a stewardship sermon on the theme: "Our Inmeasurable Debt To God." This will be an exposition of the Scripture from the Gospel of St. Luke, chapter 12.

In the Choir, the men's chorus will be directed by Mrs. Clark Will in singing the Shelley chorus, "God Is Love." Hymns to be sung will include "The Church's One Foundation," "I Love Thy Kingdom, Lord," "Rise Up, O Men of God."

At the organ, Mrs. Theodore L. Huston will play "Andante" from Fourth Sonata; Grieg's "Cradle Song"; and the Bach number, "All Glory Be To God On High".

Prayers will be offered for the people of Hungary, for the Christian cause of righteousness and peace among the nations, and for lives changed for Christ among the people of this nation under God.

The worship service will be followed up by a stewardship dinner for the men of the Church. They will then call in the homes of the congregation, presenting the 1957 goals of the Church in its work for the Kingdom of God both in this community and in support of mission work throughout the nation.

At 6 p. m. the Young People will meet in the Westminster Chapel for devotions. They will be led by Dan Robinson and Gary Winner.

At 8 p. m. the Couples Club of Geneva Fellowship will meet for a color-slide program entitled "Highway To The Stars", by the Rev. Donald Mitchell.

Two representatives from the local Presbyterian Church, elder Eugene Thurston and a member of the Board of Trustees, Mr. Kermit Dountz, will attend the meeting of the District Three committee on the long range planning advancement program of the fifty-three Presbyterian Churches of the Presbytery of Columbus. The meeting will be held in Lancaster at 7:30 p. m.

The committee is headed by the Rev. Robert Bowman, pastor of First Presbyterian Church, Lancaster.

The average American enjoys about 1,000 hours more of leisure a year than his grandfather.

Services Listed For Baptist Chapel

Services for the First Baptist Chapel, which meets each Sunday in the Masonic Building, are as follows:

Bible school, 9:30 a. m.; morning worship, 10:30 a. m.; Baptist Training Union, 6:30 p. m.; evening worship, 7:30 p. m.; and prayer service Wednesday at 7:30 p. m.

The congregation is meeting in the Masonic Building until their new church building is erected. The Rev. Paul J. White is the pastor.

It happens in offices, in factories, in barracks . . . on ships and trains and airplanes . . . in the quiet of churches, in the thunder of battle; we pause in the turmoil of time to read the Word of Eternity.

And the pages we read bring us close to those at home, or to those away from home.

For the Bible brings us to God, in Whom there are no distances, with Whom love encompasses all.

One of the great Christian enterprises of our time is the American Bible Society. Through the support of Christian churches and individuals it seeks to bring these divine pages before the eyes of men, women and children the world over.

Like the churches of our community it calls men to the Truth on which unity and freedom are founded.

THE CHURCH FOR ALL . . . ALL FOR THE CHURCH

The Church is the greatest factor on earth for the building of character and good citizenship. It is a storehouse of spiritual values. Without a strong Church, neither democracy nor civilization can survive. There are four sound reasons why every person should attend services regularly and support the Church. They are: (1) For his own sake (2) For his children's sake. (3) For the sake of his community and nation. (4) For the sake of the Church itself, which needs his moral and material support. Plan to go to church regularly and read your Bible, daily.

George E. Sokolsky's
These Days
The volume of votes cast in the 1956 election, more than 51,000,000 out of a total population of 168,000,000, clearly indicates that the people not only spoke but wished to speak. No one in the United States is required to vote; it is a wholly voluntary process. Eisenhower received more than a majority of the popular vote; the electoral vote does not present the same proportions as the popular vote. In the electoral vote, state by state, winner takes all.

THE STRUGGLE CONTINUES
THE NATION celebrates Veterans Day on Nov. 11, the day when the armistice that stopped the fighting in World War I became effective. But now Americans pay homage not only to the men of 1917-1938 but to the veterans of all wars.

This is only right, and those who wore the uniform in World War I will agree there is a great deal of truth in the concept that the armistice of 1918 was in fact only a cease-fire in a continuing struggle that broke out anew in 1939. For the sake of convenience the conflict of 1939-1945 is referred to as the Second World War, but the issue was the same—whether autocratic militarism should be allowed to attain the power to strike down the free and democratic nations bordering the Atlantic Ocean. The two wars were chapters of a single continued story.

But the story that continued after the surrender by the Central Powers in 1918 did not end with the destruction of the Berlin-Rome-Tokyo axis in 1945. One of the victors was also an autocratic military state. It had revealed itself in attacking Finland and in joining with Germany in the assault on Poland but it had been compelled to defend itself when Hitler turned against his ally. When it revealed its nature again, in Korea, there could be no doubt the world was in still a third chapter of the same narrative.

Americans look back at two world wars and a localized war—and honor the veterans of all three, the dead and the living, on Veterans Day. But the greatest tribute that can be paid them is to realize that their cause and ours is still endangered. A just peace is not the goal of all governments. These are facts we must face and deal with from day to day.

Americans today must cope with totalitarian nations ready to use all practical means to advance their own ends and overthrow the way of freedom. It will take not only sacrificial courage but hard thinking and persistent effort to survive this test.

HIGHER COMMODITY PRICES
EFFECT OF military action in the Middle East on the world's commodity markets followed orthodox pattern. Prices of commodities that would be in short supply if hostilities were long continued or spread spurted upward. Rubber, tin, copper and a score of other critical materials took part in the advance.

If the fighting is confined to Egypt and is not long drawn out, commodity prices may soon return to their former areas or be stabilized at levels only slightly higher. But if the conflagration spreads, prices of some critical raw materials, already vastly higher than during World War II, could zoom to heights never contemplated, with unpredictable impact upon the world's economy.

Perhaps most important of the vital materials affected is oil, with a large part of Europe's oil supplies originating in the Middle East. Britain and France could be supplied from other sources, but the improvisation would be difficult and costly.

The United States is more dependent upon world sources of supply for other materials than it is for oil. Some oil is being imported from the Middle East and from South America, but production of U. S. wells could be stepped up, at least temporarily, to fill the gap if such supplies became unavailable.

But it is certain that the cost of living index will register an increase as a result of the fighting in Egypt. Inflation is ever fed by war.

THE HYDROGEN HORROR
OVER WORLD events hangs the fearful shadow of the Hydrogen Bomb.
The British and French are gambling that their action will not start an all-out H-bomb war. It is hoped they are right.
But at other periods in history minor events, rebellions and border-crossings, incidents that in themselves seemed insignificant, have touched off world wars.
It could happen again. So much is known by everybody about the dreadful consequences of nuclear warfare that the knowledge should continue to be a deterrent. But there is no doubt that the Middle East belligerents are monkeying with a terrible powder keg.

Eisenhower's popularity held up despite the use that was made by the opposition of his ill-health. If anything, this particular argument hurt Stevenson, as Eisenhower appeared hale and often on the television screen to millions of Americans and sometimes he looked less tired than his younger challenger.

As most humans have, at one time or another, been sick of a more or less serious nature, the reiteration that Ike had had a thrombosis and an ileitis evoked not only sympathy but a pride in his energetic comeback.

Another argument that fouled the opposition was "part-time President." It sounded far-fetched. In this 40-hour-a-week country, who is not working part-time? And the assumption is that if the business of the nation gets done to the satisfaction of the people, it only goes to show that Eisenhower knows how to organize his office.

The golf ball and the mashie may yet become the symbol of the era. Walter Reuther who advocates a 30-hour week surely cannot object to a President who gets his work done without a stop watch. At any rate, the people so voted.

Another argument that ran foul is that Americans can be led by the nose on a class-conscious basis. Eisenhower carried all the distinctively farm states except six in the South and it was Eisenhower and his Secretary of Agriculture, Ezra Taft Benson, who proposed and pursued a farm policy which the Democrats said was ruining the farmer and returning him to the Democratic fold. Except as it affected members of Congress, and that could also be over other matters, the farmers, by and large, helped to increase the Eisenhower vote.

Similarly, Eisenhower could not have carried such industrial states as Pennsylvania, West Virginia, Connecticut and Ohio if the political efforts of the A.F.L.-C.I.O. counted for much. The evidence is that the American worker while belonging to a union votes for candidates for public office as he chooses. He does not regard the political judgment of his leaders as better than his own.

Also it does not appear in any figures that there was any show of racial or nationality antagonism to the President or that, in this election, such matters counted. Stevenson undoubtedly frightened some who might have voted for him by his pursuit of the argument that the H-bomb should not be tested. It sounded unrealistic. It gave the impression of careless judgment particularly after the Russian invasion of Hungary and the brutal proposal to the United States that the two atomic nations, the United States and Soviet Russia, join to take the British and the French out of the Suez enterprise.

It seemed to many that whereas Stevenson may have had a valid argument about radioactive strontium, this country had to go on testing as long as Soviet Russia rejected every proposal to limit or even abolish the use of atomic and hydrogen bombs by international control and inspection. At any rate, Stevenson's approach to this problem lost for him the confidence of many voters who feared that he accepted immature advice too willingly.

The same applied to his argument concerning the extremely unpopular draft, which most parents fear and hate. But the feeling was also strong that this was not the time to bring up such a subject, not when there was shooting in the Middle East and in Hungary and when Iceland was throwing us out and who can tell what will happen next? It was the wrong campaign in which to take up an issue which, under some circumstances, might have been popular.

Undoubtedly, there will be weeks of discussion about this campaign, but this much looks certain: the Democrats need a new type of leadership if they are to win in 1960. Their present position resembles that of the Republican Party after the defeat of Wendell Willkie.

There will be less juvenile delinquency when women spend as much time minding their children as they do their calories.

What the nation gains on the battlefield it loses in the field of diplomacy, according to an old bromide. Obviously this could only be true if it gained something on the battlefield.

CHAPTER 23
LEONE seemed surprised at my approaching her at the reception desk.
"Leone," I said, "I've got to speak to you."
She didn't answer for a moment. Her guard went up. Then she said, "What do you want to speak to me about?"
"I think you know."
"I know?"
"What was that you hit me with, Leone?" Honestly, sneaking up behind a girl like that! What would Mr. Bell think of such uncouth behavior?
"All right," she said. "But this is a busy day."
"Why can't you arrange to have lunch when I do?"
"I don't ordinarily have lunch." She stopped talking. She was looking beyond me and I turned to see what was so intriguing. Immediately, I turned back. Detectives Boiling and Hankins were coming down a corridor toward us. They spurted across the reception room to catch an impatient elevator. I was glad to see them go. Leone didn't seem to miss them either, but I didn't discuss it with her.
I said, "Leone, stretch a point today and have some lunch. I'm sure Mr. Bell knew about your uncouth behavior."
"All right."
We made a date for lunch.
The hour that Leone arranged for us was late; the small restaurant on Forty-sixth off Madison was nearly empty. Leone told the waiter she wasn't hungry, that she would just have a Dubonnet cocktail. I didn't feel in the mood for food either, but I ordered milk and a sandwich. I had a hunch that I should keep my strength at its maximum.
The waiter went away.
Leone said, "Why did you get a job at the school?"
"That doesn't matter."
"Is Hester Frost your real name?"
"Leone, I'm not going to answer any of your questions. I'm not really tough, but I'm going to pretend I am. Call this any nasty word you like, but if you don't tell me the truth about what I want to know, I'm going to talk to Mr. Bell. About you, Leone."
"What makes you think he'd care?"
"Because . . . as of now . . . he's going to marry you."
Her eyes behind the stylish spectacles opened wide. Her surprise was genuine. That meant Bell had not yet told her about my conference with him. Perhaps he hadn't the opportunity, perhaps he meant not to tell her at all. At any rate, it gave me a chance to shock her some more, and I used that chance.
"I know all about it, Leone. From his proposal to you last New Year's Eve . . . by telephone . . . to your plans to be married this one. I know you don't even . . ."

Try, Stop Me

On his beautiful estate near Monte Carlo, Somerset Maugham, author of "Of Human Bondage" and many other best-sellers, is mourning the loss of 252 palm trees killed by the unprecedented cold of the 1955-56 winter.
"The cypresses could be straightened," he told us, "but 200-year-old palm and olive trees are gone forever." There was a man working in the top branches of a tall tree while we watched. Suddenly he leaped several feet from the bough to the roof of the villa. "He gets 400 francs for that job," commented Maugham. "Maybe writers aren't so badly paid, after all."
Maugham added that from here

If Your Feet Bother You Try A Bigger Shoe Size

By HERMAN N. BUNDESEN, M.D.
FEET bother you? It's no wonder. About 90 per cent of the nation's population has some sort of foot trouble sooner or later. With odds like that, chances are you're among that 90 per cent.
The chief cause of foot trouble? Shoes Don't Fit.
Poorly fitting shoes, of course. A little more care in buying shoes and we can do away with much foot discomfort.
Let me give you a few buying tips.
First, take a look at your present shoes. If they fit properly you'll notice the first signs of wear on the sole under the ball of your foot.
If this is the case and the shoes have been comfortable, tell the salesman about them. The shoe last is a good one for you and maybe he can fit you with a similar pair.
Ask the salesman to measure both of your feet while you are standing on them. Don't insist on the same size shoe you've been wearing. You may need a larger size this time.
Just one-sixth of an inch, remember, is half a size.
Be sure the shoe has plenty of depth at the toe. The widest part of the shoe should correspond with the widest part of your foot. The heel should be snug so the shoe doesn't slip.
It's a woman's privilege to have lots of shoes. In fact, it's even advisable from a health standpoint. Women, you see, do well to have a variety of heel heights.
You should have shoes with heels of at least three different heights, ranging from high to medium to flat.
Wear them in succession, a different height each day, and you'll always feel comfortable, whether in flats or high heels.
Built-up leather heels generally are more resilient than covered heels.
QUESTION AND ANSWER
J. A.: I have begun to work under fluorescent lighting. I now notice that I am becoming bald. Could this type lighting be causing it? I am a woman of 24.
Answer: No. If anything, fluorescent light would stimulate the scalp rather than cause baldness, for this type light gives off some ultraviolet rays.

WE REMEMBER . . .

THE 25th INFANTRY DIVISION— "THE TROPIC LIGHTNING DIVISION"
August 2, 1950
Korea
Following their capture of the capital city of Seoul, North Korean troops continued their advance to the south virtually unopposed. The port of Pusan was their final objective.
To add strength to the left flank of the defense line protecting the city, the 25th Infantry Division was ordered to shift its position from the right to the left flank, a distance of some 150 miles.
Men and equipment were moved to the new southwestern front during the night using all available vehicles. In a matter of hours they were in position. Later the 25th counter-attacked against superior North Korean forces helping to keep the enemy off balance. Their action aided in preventing a break-through and in saving Pusan from capture.

You're Telling Me!
By WILLIAM RITT
Central Press Writer
The Library of Indiana University has just acquired a highly valuable copy of the lost memoirs of King James II of England. But they won't prove half as interesting as the diary of one of his subjects, an obscure fellow known as Samuel Pepys.
Pepys' name was (and is) pronounced "Pepps"—a perfect monicker, for he was a champion key-hole peeker.
Sam, was such an incurable gossip, he not only blabbed about his friends' indiscretions but also told of his own didos.
To his other accomplishments, Pepys added that of being an outstanding topspot. The record of his college career at Cambridge reveals he got a terrific bawling out for being "scandalously over-seen in drink."
Sam was quite a ladies' man. He dearly loved to write about romances—chiefly his own.
Pepys was tossed into the cooler on several occasions. However, his only crime was being on the wrong side of the current political fence.
Samuel Pepys wrote down everything he saw, thought or did in his diary which was intended just for his own eyes. Posterity, though, played him a dirty trick. His stuff was published 125 years ago—and now the world knows all about him.

Westminster Bible Class Elects Officers For 1957

Gift Plan Readied Over Thanksgiving

Officers for the coming year have been elected by the Westminster Bible Class of the Presbyterian Church.

Mrs. C. E. Davis, president, opened the meeting with the class motto, given in unison. It is taken from 1 John, 6:16.

The treasurer's report was given by Mrs. Clarence Hott. For the Thanksgiving project, the class voted to send gifts to older members of the church.

Thanks were expressed for cards sent to Mrs. S. M. Cryder and Mrs. Orin Dreishach.

Officers for the new year are: president, Mrs. Florence Baker; vice-president, Miss Alta Bartley; treasurer, Miss Winifred Parrett; and secretary, Miss Martha Warner. The nominating committee was composed of Mrs. Charles Smith, Mrs. Walter Downing and Mrs. Davis.

Mrs. G. Guy Campbell, chairman of the hostess committee, presented Mrs. Mitchell who gave an informative talk on the "Christian Home".

Mrs. Mitchell said that a Christian family had certain attitudes and relationships within the family, as well as outside the family. She said:

"Families, as well as the individuals within them, are justified by their faith rather than their works. It is the grace of God and nothing less that overpowers our blundering ways and gives to us the means to bring our families into Christian relationships."

Mrs. Mitchell closed by saying: "Your Church has said, 'the simple truth is that parents and children alike need a Savior—the family together in faith can make their way to Him'."

Miss Winifred Parrett, in charge of devotions, read a Thanksgiving prayer.

Mrs. Mitchell announced that a musical would be held in the church November 18, with a reception following.

The program concluded with a contest offered by Mrs. Campbell and won by Mrs. Mitchell.

A social hour followed the program, with Mrs. Campbell, chairman, assisted by Mrs. Loring Evans, Mrs. W. C. Watson and Mrs. Sterling Croman.

The next meeting will be December 4, when a gift exchange will be held.

Tarleton Women's Society Meets

Mrs. Albert Spangler, president, conducted the meeting when the Tarleton Women's Society of Christian Service met in the social rooms of the Methodist Church.

The meeting opened with the singing of "Blessed Assurance". The Rev. Earl Cowen used the 103rd Psalm as his scripture, followed by prayer.

Mrs. Spangler read an invitation from the WSCS of St. Paul EUB Church to attend a "guest day" in the church, November 14 at 2 p. m.

The society accepted Mrs. Cowen's invitation to hold the Christmas meeting at the parsonage on December 12, at which time there will be a 50 cent gift exchange and a "what-not" lunch.

Mrs. Edith Poling, Mrs. Al McHorter and Mrs. Joe Jenkins were appointed to make out the calendar for the coming year.

The Rev. Cowen told of the general conference and its aims for the new year.

During the program readings were given by Mrs. Lloyd Spung, Mrs. Fred Reichelderfer and the Rev. Cowen. A Thanksgiving contest was conducted by Mrs. Richard Rhymer.

Refreshments were served by Mrs. Richard Ballard, Mrs. John Morrison, Mrs. Richard Rhymer and Mrs. Merle Drum. Fifteen members and fourteen guests were present.

Women To Meet At St. Philip's

The Women's Auxiliary of St. Philip's Episcopal Church will assemble at the parish hall Wednesday for the regular business meeting and program.

The program will continue the general study theme, "Women in the Life of the Church".

Deaconesses Amelia Brereton and Edith A. Booth of the Central House for Deaconesses, Sycamore, Ill., will present a narrated and illustrated program concerning the life and work of the Deaconesses in the church today.

Mrs. Howard Moore, Miss Bess Fry and Mrs. Helen Gunning are in charge of the dinner arrangements.

Art League Set For Exhibition

Chillicothe Art League is holding its 15th Art exhibit at the W. Fifth St. school Saturday and Sunday from 2 to 9 p. m. Miss Ruth Montelius and Mr. Harry Montelius are members of this league.

Surprise Honors Sandra Callihan

Miss Sandra Callihan of Parkview was honored on her 14th birthday with a surprise party planned by Linda Gibbs, Liz Tomlinson and Mary Beth Morgan.

The guests enjoyed a wiener roast and dancing.

Those present besides the honored guest were:

Mona Wells, David Brink, Marilyn Gaines, Larry Steinhauser, Judy Barnhill, Joe Rooney, Harold Arledge, John Wright, Marguerite Sims, Ernie Lindsey, Joan Horine, Phillip Adkins, Sharon Barthelmas, David Young, Sara Wanz, Steve Smith, Carol Goings, Tom Greeno, Phyllis Ullman, and Mike Buskirk.

Chaperones for the evening were

Sunday School Class Elects New Officers

Officers were elected when the Teenage Sunday School Class of the Church of Christ in Christian Union held its social meeting at the home of the teacher, Mrs. Melvin Maxwell of Brown St.

Officers elected were: president, Annette Smith; vice-president, Henry Ayers; secretary, Karen Ayers; assistant secretary, Patty Ramey; treasurer, Patty Moats; and news reporter, Ethel Ramey.

Following the devotions, games were enjoyed by the group.

The next meeting will be held in the Maxwell home December 3 at 7:30 p. m.

Mr. and Mrs. Edward Callihan and Mr. and Mrs. Russell Gibbs.

DUV Members Observe Another Veterans Day

Mrs. Frank Rader of 353 E. Mound St. entertained members of the Daughters of the Union Veterans of the Civil War Friday evening.

Mrs. E. L. Tolbert, president, opened the business meeting with an article entitled "Thanksgiving". The Americans Creed and pledge of allegiance were given.

The business session closed with the Lord's Prayer.

Mrs. H. G. Bausum, program chairman, was assisted by Mrs. W. E. Pickens.

In observance of Veterans Day, Mrs. Pickens read "Every Day Veterans Day at Tomb of Unknown Hero". Mrs. Bausum gave an interesting article written by Mrs. J. Edward Marshall concerning "Angelita's First Thanksgiving". Angelita, meaning little angel, was a girl in the Philippines.

Mrs. Tolbert conducted the Camp Fire session, during which time Mrs. Earl Smith, a guest, related a true humorous story as told by her grandfather, Mr. William Parks, who was a Civil War veteran.

The program closed with the reading of The Betsy Ross Story by Mrs. Bausum.

Miss Daisy Murray was also a guest at the meeting.

Bouquets of Fall flowers were used as decorations.

Refreshments on individual crystal trays were served by the hostess, assisted by Mrs. Frank Webbe.

The next meeting scheduled for December 14 will be held in the home of Mr. and Mrs. E. L. Tolbert of 160 Walnut St. at 7:30 p. m.

Pontious EUB Workers Hold Reorganization Meet

A re-organization meeting was held under the direction of the Rev. Fred Ketner when the Willing Workers Class of the Pontious EUB Church met at the home of Mrs. Jacob Glitt.

Mrs. Glitt, president, opened the meeting with the theme song, "Love Lifted Me". She also read the poem "Alone with God". Mrs. Larry Goodman presented the devotions and used as her Scripture the 46th Psalm.

The Rev. Mr. Ketner offered prayer and Mrs. Goodman read a prayer poem, "The Greatest Test", and also a Thanksgiving reading, "What We Give Thanks For".

Each member answered the roll call with something they were thankful for. Fourteen members and four visitors were present.

During the business meeting, plans were made to send a box to Robert Goodman, son of one of the members, who is serving his country in the services in Germany. Twenty-five dollars was voted to the Otterbein Home at Lebanon as a Christmas offering.

During the re-organization, Mrs. Larry Goodman was named president, Mrs. Walter Richards vice-president, Miss Edwina Holderman treasurer, Mrs. Floy Brobst assistant treasurer, Mrs. Guy Stockman secretary, Mrs. Creighton Kraft, assistant secretary, Mrs. Jacob Glitt, pianist, and Mrs. Ethel Klingensmith, assistant pianist.

During the program Miss Holderman gave the Bible story of Mary and Martha.

A miscellaneous shower was held for Mrs. M. R. White. Refreshments were served by the hostess.

The next meeting is scheduled for December 20 at 2 p. m. in the home of Mrs. Creighton Kraft, 639 E. Mound St.

Mrs. Boyd Ramsey will be in charge of the devotions and Mrs. Forest Croman will give the Bible story. A Christmas exchange will be held at the December meeting.

CHS Tigers Fall To Lions, 21-7, In Finale For Season.

By PAUL SMALLWOOD
Herald Sports Editor

Trailing 14 to 7 at half time, the Circleville High School Tigers were unable to go the distance on a third period touchdown drive which might have made a difference in Friday night's 21 to 7 loss to Washington C. H.

Playing their final game of the season on the Blue Lion gridiron, the Tigers drove 33 yards in the third stanza in a desperate effort to knot the score, only to have the touchdown bid fizzle out on the WCH 11 yard line. From that point on the CHS crew did not get close to the Blue Lion goal line.

Four fumbles, all recovered by Washington, also handicapped the Tigers' efforts to pin a defeat on their traditional gridiron rivals. Three of the bobbles came in the second half, each at times when it appeared that the Tigers might start to roll.

Circleville's lone touchdown of the evening came in the second period on a 55 yard march that was climaxed when halfback Walt Arledge barreled through the center of the line from three yards out.

THE BLUE Lions hit paydirt in the first, second and fourth quarters. One of their touchdowns was a 39 yard off-tackle scamper by right halfback Kenny Evans, the longest run of the game from scrimmage.

Several times during the chilly evening, quarterback Mike Hosler gathered in WCH punts and kicks and appeared to be on his way to the end zone, only to be dragged down by the last couple of Blue Lion defenders. On the first play from scrimmage in the third period, left halfback Don McClaren broke loose for 19 yards around his own right end, but he too was brought down from the rear.

Washington racked up their first TD after about nine minutes of play. Their scoring drive was set up when quarterback John Bainter slipped through the CHS line and galloped 26 yards to the Tiger 45 before he was tripped up.

Two plays later Evans shot off-tackle, eluded two Circleville secondary men and raced into the end zone standing up. Quarterback Bainter sneaked over for the extra point, giving the host team a 7-0 lead.

The Tigers knotted the score a few minutes later in the second period, moving 55 yards in 15 plays. The attack was completed when Arledge darted through a nice hole opened up by the CHS line. Norton Barnes placement was perfect and the score was deadlocked 7 to 7.

Apparently dissatisfied with the tie-score, the Blue Lions received the ensuing kickoff and promptly lugged the pigskin 51 yards in 11 plays to once again take the lead. Bainter pushed into the end zone from three yards out. The try for point was good and WCH led 14 to 7.

HOSLER took the third quarter kickoff, returning it to his own 43 yard line. On the next play McClarren dashed around end for 19 yards and the large crowd of local fans felt assured that Tigers were headed for another score.

The local gridiron moved on for two more first downs, but their try for a third was halted when halfback Steve Heeter was stopped short on a fourth and three situation.

The Blue Lions third TD of the game came after they had recovered a Tiger fumble on the Washington 45 yard line. It took the winners just six plays to tally the six-point.

Left halfback Roger McLean tucked in a handoff, squirmed through the center of the line and raced 23 yards into the CHS end zone before a single Tiger could put a hand on him. Evans' end sweep accounted for the extra point and the score remained Washington C. H. 21, Circleville 7.

CHS gained possession of the ball three more times in the fourth quarter, but each time they lost it on fumbles before a sustained offensive thrust could get underway.

Chicago Cards Due To Face New York '11'

Teams Locked In Tie For Lead In National Pro Football League

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS. The Chicago Cardinals and New York Giants, tied for first place in the National Football League's eastern conference, meet at Yankee Stadium Sunday in the big NFL game of the day.

All 12 teams will be in action, with other important struggles scheduled between the Detroit Lions and Redskins at Washington, and the Green Bay Packers invading Chicago for another meeting with the Bears.

Detroit leads the western conference with six straight victories with the Bears breathing on the Loins neck with a 5-1 record.

In other contests, the Baltimore Colts take on the Browns at Cleveland, the Pittsburgh Steelers play the Eagles at Philadelphia, and the San Francisco 49ers tackle the Rams in Los Angeles.

With good weather, the Giants look for a record crowd of some 60,000 at Yankee Stadium. New York shifted home base this year from the Polo Grounds, which could not accommodate such a turnout.

This will be the second meeting of the fall between the eastern leaders, the Cardinals having outscored New York in the second game of the season at Chicago, 35-27. The Cardinals won four in a row, lost to Washington 17-14, but came back last Sunday to defeat Philadelphia 28-17.

The Giants have won four in a row, capped by a hard earned 17-14 win over Pittsburgh last week.

It doesn't seem that Washington can turn on a league leader for the second time and upset the Colts, but Detroit had a busy time last Sunday before downing San Francisco 17-13. The 49ers made a touchdown in the final two minutes, but it was nullified on an offside penalty.

This will be the second meeting between the Bears and Green Bay Chicago having taken the earlier game 27-21.

The Browns improved defense meets a test Sunday against the Colts, who are loaded with break away runners.

The Browns will have to stop Baltimore's Lennie Moore, fleet first-year man from Penn State, who ran 79 and 74 yards for touchdowns against Green Bay two weeks ago.

They also have to worry about Carl Taseff, former Cleveland East High and John Carroll University a touchdown this season.

Two other Baltimore backs are capable of breaking away—L. G. Dupre and Alan Ameche. Ameche led the league with 961 yards from scrimmage as a rookie last season.

Three recent changes in the Browns' defensive lineup showed up well in last week's 24-7 victory over Green Bay. Bob Gain, shifted out to left end, Sam Palumbo making his first start at middle guard, and rookie Junior Wren, playing right safety, all were effective.

The Browns are expected to continue a ground game, featuring fullback Ed Modzelewski and halfback Preston Carpenter, who piled up 181 yards of the Browns' 202-yard rushing total against Green Bay.

It will be the Colts first appearance in Cleveland since 1949 when the Browns won 21-0, and the first meeting of the two clubs since 1950 when the Browns won 31-0.

Ted Dailey, Syracuse University line coach, played end at Pittsburgh under Jack Sutherland.

Ohio Frosh To Play Big Role In Northwestern's Future

EVANSTON, Ill. (AP)—Ordinarily, it isn't safe to peruse the future of a college freshman football team, but Northwestern University's new head coach, Ara Parseghian, has no choice.

This was a "go-get 'em" year in a rebuilding program designed to puff the Wildcats into something more than a Big Ten doormat. So new athletic director Stu Holcomb, former Purdue head coach, and Parseghian have done their best to stock Northwestern's depleted football roster.

This year's Wildcat frosh group has 11 all-stars and includes 15 players from the highly competitive Chicago area and 13 from Ohio, not to mention Chip Holcomb, Stu's son, who was a star prep quarterback at West LaFayette, Ind.

Parseghian knows as well as any coach that a freshman team is the most perishable item on the college football market. Touted prep stars sometimes last only a matter of a few months as the boys are separated from the men on the field and in the classroom. But he's hopeful and cheerful.

"It doesn't look too bad," commented Parseghian, whose Wildcats at Wisconsin Saturday still will be trying to win Northwestern's first Big Ten game since 1954. "We've got some good frosh quarterbacks and some big backs which we need badly."

Young Holcomb, a 6-2, 175-pounder who shows unusual poise for a freshman, completed 55 per cent of his passes last year for 13 touchdowns.

Holcomb, who has a shot at a starting berth next fall as both Wildcat quarterback graduate, is getting stiff competition from John Talley of Delaware, Ohio.

Talley, a field general who is a good runner and passer, was an all southern Ohio choice last year at Delaware Willis High.

Both Holcomb and Talley are getting good coaching from Dale Samuels, the former Purdue quarterback great and now a frosh assistant. Bo Schembechler, a Par-

Soviet Ouster From Olympics Being Sought

MELBOURNE (AP)—The Council of Hungarian Associations sent a formal protest to the International Olympic Committee today asking that Russia be banned from the games as "murderers."

In a cable to Avery Brundage, president of the IOC, in Chicago the group called attention to the fact that Japan and Germany were barred from the 1948 games in London although World War II had been over three years.

The protest said it is an impossible situation for Russia to compete when that government has been responsible for the "murder of thousands" in the recent Hungarian rebellion.

Hungary's Olympic team received a tumultuous welcome here today.

The Hungarian athletes, many of whom fought against the Russians in the rebellion, were the center of attraction.

More than 1,000 persons, including a small group of Russians, were on hand, but the Russians were completely snubbed.

Most in the crowd were Hungarians who came to Australia years ago. They were the Hungarian colors of red, white and green with a mourning stripe of black.

The Hungarian athletes declined to talk politics or to tell of their recent experiences apparently because they feared for the safety of relatives at home.

But in greeting old friends they left no doubt about their feelings for the Russians.

Berrios Shows Big Improvement

NEW YORK (AP)—When they get around to picking the fighter who has improved the most in 1956, little Miguel Berrios should get a solid vote.

Berrios, a 5-2 Puerto Rican, made it two in a row over Gabriel (Flash) Elorde of the Philippines by winning a unanimous decision in 10 rounds Friday night at Madison Square Garden.

Judge Harold Barnes had it a walkover 8-2 for Berrios and a lopsided 7-2-1, only referee Conn had it close (5-4-1), but all voted for the little Puerto Rican.

3 Homers Smash Japan All-Stars

TOKYO (AP)—First baseman Gil Hodges smashed two home runs and second baseman Don Zimmer one today as the Brooklyn Dodgers overpowered the Japan All-Stars 8-2.

The crowd of 30,000 included Crown Prince Akihito and his sister, Princess Suga.

Saltcreek Wins Cage Contest; New Holland, Williamsport Lose

In basketball games in the county last night, Saltcreek defeated Atlanta 58 to 46, Rushville edged out Williamsport 58 to 56 in an overtime and New Holland managed to get by Madison Mills 65-63.

After trailing 27 to 26 at half-time, the Saltcreek five came back strong in the final two quarters to earn a comfortable margin of victory.

The Warriors' Hardman ripped the nets for 16 points to win scoring honors for the winners. However, Ater was top scorer of the evening, racking up 19 markers for the losers.

Saltcreek also won the reserve tilt, 27 to 23.

RUSHVILLE scored two points in an overtime to edge out Williamsport after the fourth quarter had ended with the score knotted 56 to 56. The score was also tied at the end of the first period, 14-14 and again at the end of the third stanza, 42 to 42.

Rushville's F. Bode was high man in the game with 20 points.

R. Bode chipped in with 17 points for the winners.

The leading point makers for the Deer Creek quintet were Morgan with 17 and Stonerock with 12.

Rushville won the reserve game 44 to 41.

In the New Holland-Madison Mills tilt, the Bulldogs held a 49 to 40 lead at the end of the third period, but they had to beat down a desperate Madison rally in the final stanza.

High man for the winners was Large, with 17 points. McClary also had 17 for the losers.

Madison Mills won the reserve game, posting a 44 to 36 victory over the Bulldog junior varsity men.

Nation Soon To Honor Another Unknown World War Hero

Nameless Body Will Represent Dead Of 1942-45

Plans Due Shortly On Added Tomb At Arlington, Va.

As the nation notes the coming of another Veterans Day, preparations are being made to bury an unknown serviceman of World War II in America's top shrine for her fighting men, Arlington National Cemetery.

This nameless individual, still to be chosen, will be interred beside the body of the Unknown Soldier of World War I. And the inscription on the tomb will be made to read accordingly.

The new nameless hero will be called the Unknown American of World War II. And presidents, kings, and commoners will pay homage to his memory, and to all that he will represent.

He was to have been buried in Arlington Cemetery on May 30, 1951, but the Korean war intervened and the plans were dropped. Later they were resumed under the direction of Major General Kester L. Hastings, Army quartermaster general.

Members of his staff have been studying the 1951 plan, for possible revisions, and may announce their recommendations now at any time.

WHEN THE PLANS have been completed, they will be submitted to Army Secretary Wilbur Brucker, Secretary of Defense Charles Wilson and probably also President Eisenhower for approval.

Those close to the problem expressed belief the plans finally agreed upon will follow closely those outlined for 1951.

If so, the Unknown American will be selected in historic Independence Hall in Philadelphia from among six members of the United States Armed Forces who gave their lives overseas and whose identities can never be established.

HE WILL be picked from among 8,000 unidentified dead in 16 permanent American military cemeteries abroad. The six will represent each of the five overseas theaters and the Alaskan Command.

To insure that none of the remains is identifiable as to the area from which it was sent, the unknowns will be placed, in a private ceremony, in new caskets upon arrival in Philadelphia.

After the final selection is made, the remains of the Unknown American will lie in state at the Capitol in Washington. The remaining unknowns will be returned overseas for reburial.

The Unknown American will probably be entombed in a concrete vault under the resting place of the Unknown Soldier of World War I.

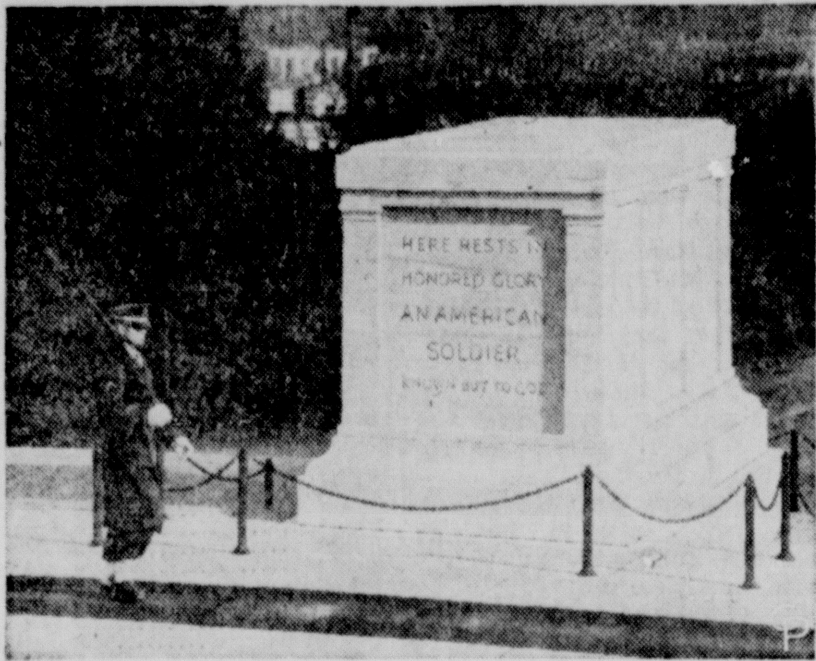

The marble sarcophagus which now marks the Unknown Soldier's tomb will serve for both. The inscription on the tomb will be changed from "Here rests in honored glory an American soldier known but to God" to "Here rest in honored glory members of the American Armed Forces of the World Wars known only to God."

Immediately to the west of the present tomb, an opening will be made to permit access to the two burial vaults. The opening will be lined with black marble.

'Chain Letter' Auto Sale Deal Studied

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—Complaints against "chain letter" promotions of automobile sales in Cincinnati will be heard at a hearing there Nov. 19 by the Ohio Motor Vehicles Dealers and Salesmen Licensing Board.

C. Ervin Nofer, acting motor vehicles registrar, said the board has received "notarized complaints from individuals" against a system of promoting automobile sales. He said the complaints were against the Sycamore Motor Co., which the board sent a citation "about a week ago."

Nofer said a firm known as Key Management, headquartered in California, had introduced an auto sales promotion system in Cincinnati. Under the system a person who buys an automobile from Sycamore could receive payment by referring to the company a new customer who buys a car, Nofer explained.

He said the complainants, whose names have not been divulged, called the system a "chain letter" promotion scheme.

Nofer said Key Management also operates in connection with a Dayton auto firm but that he board has received no complaints there.

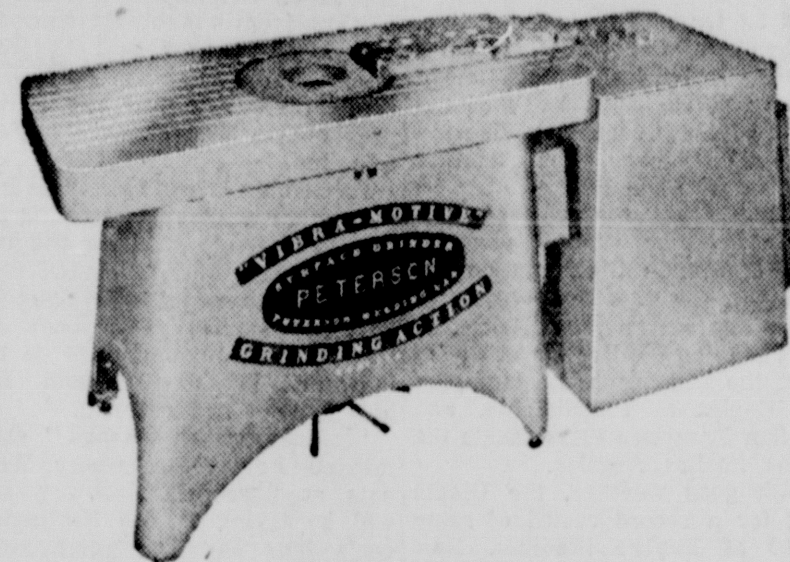

The board, composed of Nofer and two auto dealers, can suspend auto salesmen's or dealers' licenses for violations of its rules or state law. secretary of Sycamore, said he did not want to make a statement at In Cincinnati, Mandall Block, this time.
